

Taylor County Programs

Commission On Aging.....715-748-1491 Medford, WI

The Commission on Aging offers a variety of programs and information related to older adults. Taylor County residents age 60 and over and spouse, regardless of age, are served.

The following programs are offered by the Commission on Aging:

- Alzheimer's Support Group
- Benefit Specialist Program
- Emergency Response Systems or Care Call
- Exercise Programs
- Home Delivered Meals
- Information and Assistance
- Little Store, Senior Crafts & More
- National Family Caregiver Support Program
- Newsletter
- Nutrition Senior Dining Sites
- Phone Buddy Program
- Prevention Services
- Senior Centers
- Senior Home Repair Program
- Transportation & Volunteer Driver Services
- Volunteer Opportunities

Taylor County Health Department.....715-748-1410 Medford, WI

Provides services such as registered nurse visits for assessments and medication setup. Provides nail care, immunizations, blood pressure screening, and communicable disease information. These services require appointment times and certain services may have some associated costs. Call for more information or to set up an appointment.

Taylor County Programs, continued

Taylor County Human Services.....715-748-3332 Medford, WI

The Long-Term Support Unit of the Taylor County Human Services Department provides community services to elderly and physically disabled residents of Taylor County. This unit recognizes the principles of self-determination and freedom of choice as important to Taylor County residents.

Programs and services available through the Long-Term Support Unit:

- Community Options Program
- Medical Assistance Waiver Programs
- Alzheimer's Family Support Program
- Case Management
- Supportive Home Care
- Elder Abuse Investigation
- Guardianship
- Protective Payment
- Community Residential Services
- Respite Care
- Adaptive Equipment
- Specialized Transportation
- Daily Living Skills Training

Veterans Service Office.....715-748-1488 Medford, WI

Aids and assists Taylor County veterans and their families.