

BOARD OF CANVASS

The Board met in the West Entrance Meeting Room of the Courthouse on Thursday, November 4, 2010 at 9:00 a.m. Republican Jon Olson, Democrat Ray Mallo, and Taylor County Clerk Bruce Strama conducted the canvass of the returns of the 2010 Fall General Election results.

The following corrections were made:

Town of Aurora – There were 4 votes in the scattering column which were removed as scattering was "0". On the Advisory Question under the No vote, 62 was on the report which was corrected to read 30;

Town of Browning – votes were changed under United States Senator from 2 to 8 for Rob Taylor;

Town of Chelsea – Votes entered for Walker/Kleefisch on the original report were 110 which was corrected to read 170;

Town of Hammel – 3 scatterings were added to Clerk of Court race which had been errantly entered as 0;

Town of Holway – 1 vote was added in the scattering section for both the Governor/Lt. Governor and Attorney General races which had been originally entered as 0 in both cases;

Town of Roosevelt – Under the County Sheriff race the scattering was reduced from 50 votes to 5 votes which was a keying error;

The board of canvass adjourned at 12:00 p.m.

Bruce P. Strama, County Clerk
